
COMIX WORLD 41. Copyright Clay Geerdes, 915 Indian Rock Rd., Berkeley, Ca 94707. World Rights Reserved. $3.50 for 12. $7.00 for all back issues ($6 to regular subscribers who are curious to know what went on before they joined up.). And Fred Burkhart calls himself 20th Century Anonymous, P. O. Bx 10066, Cincinnati, Ohio 45210. 25¢ gets you "The Portable Fanzine."* Comix back in Berkeley BARB with issue 543. Four strips (red and yellow colors). Bill Griffith, Pat Daley, Ted Richards, and Kim Deitch are the artists.* CERBERUS, a nice B/W mag, is $1.25pp from Eric Vincent, Box 3849, USL, Lafayette, La 70501. All comic art. Good satire on THE FANTASTIC FOUR. Vincent has a unique style. This is one I recommend to serious collectors of alternative comics.* Dan O'Neill fans will want the last five or six issues of CITY MAGAZINE, 531 Pacific, San Francisco, Ca 94133. 9 issues go for $4.95. It's LIFE magazine format up to now. Nice photography and articles of national interest.O'Neill reviewed the SNOOPY musical in comic format in one issue.* NEW DAWN, a New York mag will reprint Trina's PANTHEA in full color. She is doing the separations now. Told me the new book of sex fantasies is nearly finished. Krupp will publish it. I'd give you the title, but have decided not to mention titles that have never been published. There are folks out there who rip off such titles. You'll see that hot sex number at the Berkeley Con, April 30-May 2, 1976. Dealer's Room for the big party will be designed by Gregory Duncan, the man who did the Wax Museum in San Francisco. Both ugs and straight comics will be available in the room during the con. Karl Cohen, filmmaker and teacher, will coordinate the film program. Don Niveling will be the art curator. IF YOU WRITE FOR INFO ABOUT THE CON, SEND A SELF-ADDRESSED, STAMPED ENVELOPE OR A STAMP.* St. Martin's Press in New York will publish an anthology of ZAP COMIX this year. * A limited number of copies of Guy Colwell's BACKWATER BABIES is available from Last Gasp Comix, 2180 Bryant St., San Francisco, 94103. $3 pp. Some of you collectors may want to take Guy Colwell up on a signed copy for $10. Check to him, 3372½ 25th St, San Francisco, Ca. The BABIES are Guy's collected paintings.

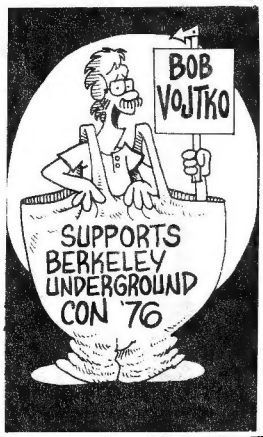
Coming up in February: COCAINE COMIX 1.* Both Jaxon and Greg Irons have work in the next SLOW DEATH. San Francisco buses are driving around with a nice Irons ad for KSAN on them (collectors, take note!).* A new publication by the HIGH TIMES folks, NATIONAL WEED, will feature four-color reprints of some ug comix. In print now is a Shelton Freak Brothers page. WEED is done by ex-VILLAGE VOICE staffers. Like the forthcoming, HIGH SOCIETY, it's a market for dope jokes. HUSTLER, 36 West Gay St., Columbus, Ohio, is in the market for raunchy sex panel cartoons. REALLY GROSS STUFF, the kind that would make the baddest biker on your block upchuck. I'd print one of HUSTLER'S rejection slips, but I know a lot of you folks read this comix sheet over your dinner, so I'll spare you the grotty details.* Richard Corben will do the cover for SLOW DEATH 8.* FREAKS 4 may be the fasting selling underground in history. 50,000 since December.* Joel Milke tells me Rick Griffin will be a guest at this Summer's San Diego Con.* 1-14-76



Larry Todd is working on DR. ATOMIC 4, his "pipe 'n' dope" book.* Dan O'Neill rumored to be in New York discussing plans for an Off-Broadway version of his ODDS BODKINS. * $2 American gets you the latest TANTE LENY PRESENTEERT from Evart Geradts, 269 Hulshorststr, Den Haag, Holland. 18, 19, and 20 were Great books!!

COMIC FLASHBACK 2

Yes, Virginia, A Yellow Dog 15 did exist. The first 12 were tabloids. 13-14 was a combo comic issue with Crumb cover. 15 had this Irons Uncle Sam. Inside was Harvey Kurtzman's "Decadence Degenerated," Welz "Fillmore Grinchbottom," Irons' "Discover America" Dan Clyne's "The Elderly Couple, & stuff by Jay Lynch & Justin Green & Robert Dougherty. 1969. Editor was Don Schenker, one of the founders of the Berkeley Print Mint. YD 15 is not in print & copies are rare. YD ended with the 25th ish.
